Imagination and creativity are the crucial skills we all need in our lives. These personal qualities help us create something that have never been done before. But why is it so important to develop them since childhood?

I believe that ~~together~~ with imagination comes <sup>passion</sup> ~~motivation~~ <sup>motivation for all things</sup> for creating ~~something like~~ <sup>the passion for any kind of</sup> ~~business.~~ <sup>main character of</sup> ~~Willy Wonka, the owner of the chocolate factory~~ <sup>from the novel</sup> "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" can be a great example of <sup>imagination</sup> ~~imaginative creativity~~ leading to success. It is Willy's creativity and perseverance which led him to living up his own dream of creating a chocolate factory.

The Froggy Incident.

This little yet extremely funny story happened to my grandparents and me back in my childhood.

One day my grandpa decided to go fishing, and guess what? He was going to take me! Yes, I felt absolutely excited; ~~that~~ <sup>it</sup> was the first bloody time he offered me to join!

Having both aroused at the very dawn we packed our things and ~~headed~~ <sup>fall'd</sup> to the exit door. Curie, our little fluffy dog, wanted to go with us but granddad didn't let her; this naughty <sup>and</sup> vicious monster was way too unpredictable for such a ~~responsible~~ dangerous trip.

~~Grandpa, unfortunately, didn't have success great in fishing, can't say ~~how~~ his water fishing, well,~~

Although grandpa didn't succeed greatly ~~that time~~ well, that didn't really bother me, I've had some other business which was... Hunting frogs, that's right! These little semi-aquatic creatures captured ~~all~~ my attention, I even started collecting ~~them~~ into our lunchbox. So, ~~however to the end~~ by the end of the trip I've got myself ~~an~~ a whole box of these beings. Shikins with my hunter's pride, I came to my room and hid the box under my bed to ~~con-~~ t to execute some important research the following night. Little did I know there was still one thing that would interrupt my plans...

And this little thing's name is ~~Curie~~ Curie. This ~~blatly~~ animal was going to take a nap under my bed when she saw my tiny secret. Can you guess what Curie did to that box? Of course, she opened it and put her curious nose inside. Expectedly, all the steal-ably creatures jumped out and Curie had nothing else to do but to rush away, barking and stamping loudly with her tiny paws.

~~Soon~~ <sup>Soon</sup> ~~grandma~~ <sup>came</sup> to where the noise was coming from... saying that she ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup> terrified ~~and~~ <sup>started</sup> ~~she~~ <sup>she</sup> ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup> just ~~in~~ <sup>in</sup> the ~~face!~~ <sup>face!</sup> She took her mop and threw the frogs right ~~hand.~~ <sup>hand.</sup> "Terry" "Terry, is that you again with your frogs?!" yelled she. Yes, she was talking not to me but to my grandfather, ~~later~~ <sup>later</sup> he explained me that he also ~~had~~ <sup>had</sup> had such an ~~in~~ <sup>in</sup> accident with frogs; he wanted grandma to cook frog legs for him (of course, she was really irritated with that) ~~As~~ <sup>As</sup> I was pretty naive I thought she will beat him with her mop and then he will do the same with ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> dog Curie, so immediately I came up and confessed, luckily, that actually solved the situation as the old couple had a great laugh at each other's reaction and then tell me not to do such things again.

First of all, creative thinking enables children to ~~use~~ ~~their~~ ~~knowledge~~ ~~that~~ ~~they~~ ~~have~~ ~~to~~ ~~get~~ ~~practically~~ ~~profit~~ ~~ve-~~ ~~sults~~. For example, a kid ~~knows~~ <sup>knows</sup> that it is easier to ~~lift~~ <sup>lift</sup> the heavy items up ~~using~~ <sup>using</sup> supports. Imaginations <sup>and creativity</sup> ~~are~~ <sup>are</sup> crucial skills that ~~every~~ <sup>every</sup> one of us needs in their lives. However, ~~it~~ <sup>it</sup> is not so important <sup>They</sup> ~~to~~ <sup>to</sup> help ~~us~~ <sup>us</sup> to systematise the knowledge in a way we ~~need~~ <sup>need</sup> and ~~draw~~ <sup>draw</sup> further conclusions based on ~~our~~ <sup>our</sup> ~~own~~ <sup>own</sup> thoughts. But why is it so important to develop these skills since childhood? ~~2238~~ <sup>37 + 95</sup>

To my mind, ~~learning~~ <sup>learning</sup> creativity is actually ~~in~~ <sup>in</sup> childhood is actually the only way of ~~learning~~ <sup>learning</sup> for a grown-up is way harder than for a child. Thus, there is a small window that an adult would ever learn ~~to~~ <sup>to</sup> creativity.

~~the~~ Froggy incident.

This is a <sup>little</sup> story <sup>from</sup> my childhood <sup>extremely</sup> funny ~~his~~ ~~was~~ This little ~~was~~ yet ~~fastidiously~~ funny story happened to my grandparents and I back in my childhood. ~~One day not so~~ It was summer and one day my grandpa and I decided to ~~go~~ on a fishing trip. ~~I~~ ~~needless~~ to say that my ~~excite~~ excitement grew ~~act~~ ~~with~~, I've been asking him to take me for more than a month so <sup>it's</sup> needless to say how excited I was.

Having got up ~~at~~ at the very dawn, we took our rod, grabbed our bags with ~~food~~ lunch and worms captured in a can ~~now~~ we faced to the exit. Curie, our little fluffy demon, wanted to go with us, too, ~~but~~ but grandpa couldn't allow him; <sup>Curie</sup> this dog was way too naughty and curious for such a dangerous <sup>trip</sup> trip.

~~Now~~ Honestly, I can't recall to much about the fishing experience (maybe that's because we were blood-dily ~~unlucky~~ with the fish that day) but at one moment well, it's hard to claim that our fishing was alright.
Grandpa was standing in front of the pool for hours and still didn't manage to catch something. However, I didn't bother me at all because there was the other thing which captured my attention. On the frogs, ~~these~~ ~~the~~ This hilarious semi-aquatic and of course couldn't help but stare at them with pure childish fascination. After some time of observing them I finally managed to collect <sup>hum, hly</sup> all the audacity I had and asked my granddad: "Can I take our little box, please?" "Of course, Timmy!" answered he, and so I opened it, had some words with grandpa and ~~then~~ picked ~~up~~ some of the frogs to ~~take~~ our box. Although I felt like I did it ~~secretly~~ I later I successfully managed to ~~take~~ bring them ~~back~~ home and hid the box under my bed. Unfortunately, I was so happy, ~~felt like I've just~~ couldn't wait for a night to come so that I could explore these sticky creatures all the way through. Unfortunately, my plans were interrupted a little bit.

Later in the evening Curie decided to have a nice nap under my bed and, ~~thankfully~~ surprisingly, found a <sup>tiny</sup> ~~small~~ box standing there! I think we all already know what she did there. The next night, she turned it upside down! And all that <sup>horde</sup> ~~army~~ of frogs escaped their ~~temporary place of~~ <sup>shelter</sup> ~~shelter~~. As all the toads hopped <sup>out</sup> simultaneously, the dog rushed to the kitchen in terror and started barking with her squilly voice. To my misfortune, granny was cooking dinner at that time. ~~She came to my room~~ Being frightened by Curie's behaviour, she went to my room and...
