- 1) True. There is a great count of words in language and every of them is a symbol.
- 2) True. Some kinds of symbolism are very popular so we can understand them easily.
- 3) False. Symbolism is one of the shortest ways to express your thoughts about something.
- 4) False. This kind of symbolism called the conventional level and it is easy to understand it.
- 5) ~~Not stated~~ True. This kind of symbolism is not that clear, it's ^{full of} ~~full of~~ mystery. ^{a big}
- 6) False. For example, Herman Melville used implicit in „Moby-Dick“.
- 7) Not stated
- 8) False. There is a possibility to stay misunderstood in this situation.

2) I think it is really important to be a creative person.

Firstly, creativity is a good way to express oneself. ~~A~~ A child can let other people know what they feel or think using any kind of arts. One of my favorite characters, Little prince, could show a python who had eaten an elephant in an unusual way. It made the man see not a „hat“ but the idea of the boy.

Secondly, a creative person can avoid „beaten tracks“ and solve even a difficult problem easily. I think this skill is very helpful in lots of situations.

3) That funny story happend some time ago when my uncle Nick, a man of 50, bold and wearing glasses was getting ready for his fishing trip.

My aunt Ann, a little overweight but still good-looking, was cleaning the kitchen. Their jolly puppy Rex found a box full of little frogs, that was left near the front door. My uncle had caught the frogs the night before. Poor animals was moving in the box, making low rustling sounds. Naturally, Rex got interested and started ~~to~~ wondering around, probably thinking to himself „What is there inside? Is it a toy? Some food?“. He carefully pushed and opened the box with his nose.

The frogs jumped out happily. Rex was scared and ran away in panic.

Unfortunately, that was not the end of the story. My aunt saw a movement in the corner of her eye. To her horror she saw frogs jumping on the floor. Aunt Ann was frightened to death at first, but in a few moments she came to her senses and swept the frogs out using a broom. She was disgusted to touch them.

Full of negative attitude, my aunt is rushing to the room where her husband is sorting out his fishing rods. She is screaming at uncle Nick, he can only make out, „Frogs! In my ~~kitchen~~ kitchen! Never again!“ ~~It is struck me~~ I think she would be awful, because my uncle Nick didn't do anything ~~wron~~ bad!

But my auntie finally stopped and realised what this is not a good way to solve the problem. Since the accident she and my uncle have changed a lot. My uncle will not leave his belongings unattended. My emotional aunt has learnt to control herself. She will never attack her husband again. And Rex will always be the reason for ~~the~~ happiness in the ~~family~~ family.

Next summer they are going on a fishing trip together. If I am lucky, I might go with them.

2) ~~Современные дети, в отличие от родителей~~

Я думаю, что очень важно быть креативным человеком.

- 1) Креативность это способ самовыражения. Иногда бывает тяжело выразить свои мысли и чувства словами. Выражение своих чувств и мыслей... И один из моих любимых персонажей, Маленький принц, смог показать ~~любовь~~... ^{любовь}
- 2) Креативному человеку проще нестандартно решить проблему благодаря ~~его~~ ^{его} необычному взгляду на мир...
- 3) Более успешны?

3) Забавная история произошла; ~~дада~~ ~~Ник~~ Ник готовился к рожденью; ~~А~~ ~~где~~ ~~50,~~ носил очки; ~~мышь~~; Реке нашёл коробку лапшек; бедные животные прыгали внутри; Реке радостно ^{радостно} жизнерадостный пёс,

Было очень интересно, позвонил, что же ~~внутри~~ ^{мышь} ~~поткры~~ ^{открыл} коробку; лапшки выско-шлм; Реке убежал; моя тётушка Энн ~~поискала~~ ^{поискала} ~~готовила~~ ^{готовила} ~~к~~ ^к ~~курне~~ ^{курне}; она увидела лапшек, испугалась и ~~раза~~ ^{раз} ~~звизгала~~ ^{звизгала}; взяла швабру и вынала лапшек; ей были они противны; она побежала ругать ~~дадю~~ ^{дадю}; а хотела стукнуть его шваброй... С того момента тётушка не стукнет мужа...
