Dear Mom,
How are you? I'm writing this letter to tell you how my life has been in camp, since we haven't talked ~~&~~ for a long time.

Usually my day starts off at 7 AM, with a warm-up and breakfast. We go to the beach, where we have fun until lunchtime. After lunch we have an hour of spare time. Then we participate in leisure activities, like reading, board games, or ~~&~~ croquet. We dine at 5:30 PM, go for an ~~with~~ hour-long walk, and spend time in our rooms until the curfew of ~~&~~ 9 o'clock.

I am ^{currently} ~~in~~ ~~my~~ the garden outside. There are different plants surrounding me, but no people. This place is quiet, so it's my secret location, where I go to relax and recharge. Nothing exciting has happened today, in contrast to yesterday.

Yesterday was ~~so~~ such a fun day! We had a picnic in the nearby forest. We played hide-and-seek, and one of the kids almost got lost, but it all turned out great.

Since tomorrow is Sunday, it's the day for visits from family members. I really miss home - the quietness, my books, ~~my~~ our dog Jackie. I ~~would love~~ look forward to seeing you and Dad tomorrow, because you remind me of home. Let's have an exciting day together, just the three of us!

I really miss you, Mom. Please come as soon as possible. Also, if ~~you can~~ it's okay, could you bring me some of my adventure books, a bucket hat and some snacks? The snacks are extremely important, because I wanna share with my friends.

See you soon!

Love,
Alice.
