This ^{speech} could not have been made by Obama.

First of all, the text mentions ~~segregation~~ and civil rights issues in southern states such as Mississippi ~~and Georgia~~, which were resolved when Barack ~~Obama~~ was still a kid, considering he was born in 1961. Marches in Montgomery ~~were~~ had also happened in ^{the} 1960s, so ~~Obama~~ ~~was~~ would not have been able to participate. The usage of the word "Negroes" ~~also~~ shows that the speech was not written by a ~~mod~~ contemporary president, since

EDUCATIONAL TRIP PROPOSALTHE IMPORTANCE OF MUSEUMS~~Dear~~ Dear class teacher!

As we all know, museums are important for the humankind because they preserve history. In a museum, it is possible for ~~a person~~ ^{people} to educate themselves on the mistakes people committed in the past and learn from them, and get inspired by the glories and masterpieces of the past. Of course, a person should try to visit as ~~my~~ many different museums as possible to broaden their horizons ~~but~~ (for example, the British museum and the Tretyakovskaya gallery that provide special tours and activities for all ages), but some local, smaller museum can succeed just as well at bringing the past to life as their ~~their~~ ^{its} bigger counterparts. Having said that, this is my proposal for the educational trip destination.

JUST AS GOOD

Recently, I came across an advertisement for the British Museum and its events. It offered an unforgettable experience for ~~the~~ children (a sleeper, to be exact) that focused on making kids familiar with ancient history through fun workshops. Personally, I think that there are ~~that~~ ^{many} Russian galleries ~~that~~ ~~provide the same variety of international~~

Учёмбух

~~historical artefacts as the British ones,~~ ~~but~~ that provide exhibitions that are just as interesting ~~and~~ as the ones in the British Museum. Obviously, the cultural themes are different for the most part, but there are still overlaps with the history of England when it comes to the wars our countries took part in and rulers like Peter the First who forced our Russia to get closer to European traditions. & What is more, there is a museum in ^{the} Murmansk region that offers events as action-packed as the ones by ^{the} British Museum.

LOCAL GREATNESS

The Museum of Stone, located near the Khibiny mountains, ~~offers~~ ^{invites} young people aged 12 to 18 to visit the "Exploration of Kola" event. It's open all ~~year long~~ ^{winter} and only costs five thousand rubles for a group of fifteen people. The ^{unique historical} theme of the activities is the history and natural wonders of the Kola peninsula. Aside from visiting the regular exposition of minerals at the museum, visitors are able to study the stones & under a microscope, play different interactive games and even go down on ~~an~~ an elevator that imitates the journey of a geologist that is studying the underground layers of Earth (which is relevant because one of the deepest ~~points~~ parts of our planet is a hole drilled by ^{scientists} ~~humans~~ that were studying the Earth's insides

Честобук

that is located on Kola Peninsula), RECOMMENDATION

I strongly propose that our class visits this event for our educational trip. ||

In my opinion, such interesting activities would catch the attention of my classmates, who, like many other teenagers, like interactive exhibitions. ~~The~~ Additionally, this is a great chance for us to learn more about the culture of our homeland and ~~the significance~~ how significant stones were for the native people on Kola. I hope that my proposal is persuasive enough for you to consider taking part in this event.
