The Roman Invasion influenced the British Islands greatly. The Romans built numerous fortifications and strong walls to defend the territory. They also brought Latin literacy, and for this reason the English language has many Latin borrowings. It is necessary to mention that the Romans introduced British people to Christianity and, therefore, educated them. Lastly, the invaders brought their cultural items such as clothing, entertainment facilities.

INTRODUCTION

It is impossible to deny that museums are of paramount importance in the contemporary world. Museums are indispensable for preservation of cultural heritage, since they keep a lot of invaluable information for present and future historians. Moreover, one of the vital goals of museums is educating people.

People should not opt for ~~an~~ visiting only museums of their countries. Undeniably, it is essential to gain knowledge about other cultures. Learning about historical figures, events and achievements of other countries enhances critical thinking and makes people more erudite.

ANALYSIS OF THE EVENT

I believe that this type of museum events is suitable for my age group. Due to the wide range of provided activities, every participant will find something appealing to their taste.

Several organisational aspects are not practical. It is advisable to arrange the commencement of the event in the afternoon in order that the children have more time for the activities. Furthermore, it is recommended to allow the kids to go to bed earlier in order to get a better sleep.

PROPOSAL OF THE EVENT

'Delve into the 18th-century Russian Empire by spending a night at the Hermitage, Saint Petersburg!'

The theme of the event is the eighteenth-century Russian Empire, Peter the Great and other outstanding monarchs.

The name of the event - 'Russia and Europe'

The target audience - 12-16-year-olds.

The event consists of such activities as a fashion show with costumes of this particular century, a lecture by a historian, watching a movie, re-enactment of a ball and an art lesson.

The allowed number of participants is up to twenty. The event starts at 10 a.m. and finishes at 10 a.m. on the next day, Sunday 11 February 2024. It is obligatory to bring a notebook and a pen.
