The Roman Empire has influenced the development of the British Isles a lot. For example, straight roads and fine buildings, appeared there as a result of this impact. As for the lifestyle of the British, they started visiting bars and theatres and wore clothes similar to the Romans'. Besides, British people started speaking Latin, some could even read and write in it. Lastly, they became Christians.

Book 4.

Great Barrier Reef - It is a site of.
It is ~~extremely~~ <sup>very</sup> important to protect it essentially because it is the habitat of many endangered <sup>extinct</sup> species. By saving it we protect the wildlife of our planet

Grand Canyon National Park - The vast natural site covers By protecting it we are saving not only a ~~very~~ unique site, but also the animals peculiar to this area. This way we preserve balance in wildlife which is extremely important.

 Historic District of Old Quebec - This place was founded by We should protect this site because it tells us a lot about the history of the country and may also inspire modern creators.

Palace of Westminster and Westminster Abbey - The structure, rebuilt from the

The site is crucial to protect because it holds a huge value in terms of country's traditions and plays a key role in preserving its trademarks.

Sydney Opera House - Inaugurated in 1973, the site the protection of ~~the~~ <sup>this</sup> site is of primary importance because of the <sup>its</sup> cultural value ~~it has~~. This building has become the trademark of the country, so it's crucial to save it.

Conclusion.

Museums have always played an important role in the world of culture. They are the best places one can visit to get acquainted with the history, customs and traditions of any place in the world. Besides, ~~the~~ museums demonstrate the true power art holds, showing that it connects people and nations throughout time and long distances. It's crucial to visit museums both abroad and in one's motherland to see the world's cultural heritage in its diversity and be able to fully appreciate it.

Nowadays it is crucial to encourage young visitors to get acquainted with various exhibitions, and the British Museum <sup>offers</sup> a ~~great~~ great way to do so. This kind of event and the included activities are suitable for school children at the age of 8-14 years old. ~~At~~ This age student already know some aspects of Greek culture and would probably like to broaden their knowledge about it. Moreover, most of them are, perhaps, engaged in activities like cooking, dancing and drawing, therefore are likely to enjoy the offered ones. As for the organizational aspects of the event, they are quite convenient for all the children should be accompanied by an adult, which will help the museum staff and organizers a lot.

I would like to suggest a similar excursion in our country.
 The essence of the event is that students and their parents can learn more about the history and culture of Russia in a new way. The excursion is called 'Across Russian history in one night'. The event will be conducted in the Hermitage for students at the age of 16 to 18 years old. At this age they must ~~know~~ know quite a lot about the history of the country and are probably rather enthusiastic about it. The excursion would ~~start~~ take place on Saturday 20 April to Sunday 21 April 2024. The registration would start at 18:00 and then, at 19:00, the student would have a talk with the workers of the museum and learn some new aspects of the Russian history and culture. After that <sup>at 20:30</sup> there would be a quiz to recall all the information the visitors have learnt. At 21:00 they would have a cooking class <sup>with a following snack break</sup> at the nearby cafe where they would learn to make some dishes from the past. After that, at 21:50 the visitors would have a drawing class where they would try to draw the exhibit that have impressed them the most. At 23:00 there would be a discussion where they will be able to share their thoughts about the event with each other. Lastly, at 23:30 the activities would end and the visitors will be able to go to bed. On Sunday morning they would have breakfast and the ~~has~~ time to pack their belongings after that. As a farewell activity, the visitors would watch a documentary film ~~at~~ 9:00. After film watching session they would visit a souvenir shop at 10:30, and at 11:00 they would live. After the organizational aspects, the presence of the students' parents is not mandatory.

In conclusion, the importance of museums is undeniable. Hopefully, my suggestion meets the museums approval.
