The Romans have caused a lot of destruction in the Kingdom, but there were other consequences to their actions. Most important of all, they made christianity the main religion in Britain, which drastically changed the course of history. They built fine houses. They brought quality clothes. New buildings such as theatres and bars were built. Thanks to Romans, people learned to write and speak in latin.

Museums are monuments of history and human ingenuity. Their importance only increases with every decade that passes, which is why in modern culture they are an unexcludable part of humanity's enlightenment. Although visiting your country's museums will ~~tell~~ give a lot of knowledge about the world, it is important that one learns more about the ^{cu}lture of other countries for a better view on the various matters of our time.

This is the reason why I have decided to analyse the given museum event from my generation's standpoint. At the moment of writing this, I am a teenager one year away from becoming an adult. It is stated that the event is for 8-14-year-olds, so I cannot participate in it. For people of my age activities such as crafting and drawing might seem uninteresting. However, for people of ages 8-14 this creative work is likely to be exciting and captivating. Not only is it interesting for children, but is also convenient for the adults. The event transpires during the weekend, so it is unlikely to interfere with parents' jobs. It also seems that everything is well-organised, judging by the schedule that has been provided. Truly, this is a great event that will attract lots of attention.

Now I would like to create my own excursion based on the one provided. It is more of an actual tour than a fun sleepover.

1. Theme: The history of space exploration

2. Name: The Mysterious Cosmos

3. Museum: The Museum of Cosmonautics

4. Target audience: 12-17-year-olds

5. Schedule:

18.00: Brief introduction and organisation nuances

19.00: Dinner

20.00: Tour around the museum (main activity)

22.30: Break

23.00: Short documentary about the history of space exploration

23.30: Lights out

Sunday morning

7.00: Breakfast, packing up

7.45: Second museum tour

10.00: Finishing packing up

6. Organisation: 5500 rubles per child. 13-14 April 2024. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

This is my idea for an excursion sleeper. In my opinion, it ~~is~~ ^{would be} an interesting experience for the target audience and is also convenient for the adults.
