~~My dream room~~

My dream room

~~As for me~~

As every person on the planet, I have a need ~~for~~ security and comfort and the ability to express myself freely. My house ^{especially my room} plays an important role in fulfilling this desire as it is a place where I can be my true self and do whatever I want.

I had always been satisfied with the state of my room because it had already represented me, so I had never thought of an "ideal" one. However, the permission to redecorate the room has given me some ideas about its new appearance.

Firstly, it must be medium-sized and have high ceilings. The reason for this is that big, huge rooms are too ~~large~~ ^{big} for my taste, though I still think the ~~space~~ ^{space} room should be ~~to~~ ^{look} spacious, and increasing the height of the ceilings can help this problem. Other than that,

The ~~space~~^{room} needs to have tall windows too, so the ~~sunlight~~^{light} ~~will~~^{would} fill the space. It will be also good if the room is squarish so as to make the interior more symmetrical.

Secondly, I would prefer a not too bright yet interesting colour theme. Dark brown combined with muted greens, blues ~~and~~ and reds would be a perfect ~~and combination~~ choice. Such a combination will not distract and irritate me while still being intriguing and adding a mysterious atmosphere.

Lastly, the floor should be made out of ~~oak dark oak~~ oak wood, and the wallpaper must be mostly ~~plain~~^{plain green} like the presented wallpaper sample number 3, with a pattern at the bottom like the ~~the~~ fourth sample.

As for the details, ~~it would be a nice touch if I~~ⁱⁿ need the bookshelf, ~~that~~^{since it} would let me ~~show~~^{show} more many books, figurines and other decor inside. It also ~~will~~^{will} fit the general aesthetic of my desired room. Another ~~good~~^{amazing} idea would be the flower pots ~~and~~ the Persian rug and the little decorations on the ~~picture~~^{bottom right}. They would add a maximalist, ~~vintage~~^{vintage} look to the room. And most importantly, the flowers would give off positive energy, including the beautiful smell.

There are some things that I ~~do not~~^{do not} wish to have, though. Most of them ~~are~~^{are} unusable for me as I ~~don't know~~^{am not interested} the skills required for them ~~words I wish to~~ like the grand piano, the basketball hoop and the football table. Others are just too ~~and~~ extravagant — the canopy bed, the ~~not mentioned~~ wallpaper samples not mentioned before, the ~~wardrobe~~ giant wardrobe. And, finally, the bunk bed is just too awkward to sleep in.

If I could, I would change the ~~desk~~ white desk with ~~the~~ the computer to a darker one, ~~and~~^{so it would be more fitting} the beds to something ~~not~~ more ordinary, like ~~a two-person bed~~^{for example, a two-person bed} for example.

The ~~last~~ final thing to do after choosing all the furniture is to place it ~~some~~ somewhere appropriate. In the ~~right corner~~ centre of the room, ~~next to the wall~~^{next to the wall} there will be the two-person bed ~~next to the wall~~. On the opposite side, ~~I will put my~~^{where the window is} desk. The bookshelf will be ~~next to~~ between the desk and my bed. As for the small decor, I will place it all around the room on ~~empty surfaces~~^{my} such as tables, including the window porch where the flower pots will be. And, of course, the marvellous Persian rug will be ~~besides~~ ~~in front of~~ ~~besides~~ the bed, door to the room.

To ~~so~~ As I ~~mentioned~~^{previously} I said in the ~~before~~ the ~~comforts~~^{possibility} ability to express ~~yourself~~^{yourself} through ~~what is in~~^{your room, your} personal space is the main factor to ~~feel~~^{feel} at home yourself at home.
