~~In my opinion, Fast Food isn't good for me because it consists of quickly digested sugars which harm health and don't make for a slim figure.~~

5. My own little world Зусобух

My home means a lot for me. It is not only a place where I can relax, feel safe and allow myself not to take care about my appearance and the attitude to me ^{that} people have, ~~My~~ but it's also a place where I can freely share my emotions, ask for a piece of advice ~~and~~ ^{for} or help and have fun. Having your own room is also important, especially when your family is big. You can do there what you want without bothering anyone or being disturbed. To tell the truth, I don't dream of an ideal room and I'm ~~really~~ contented with the room I share with my sister, but I'm interested in ~~think~~ making up different designs, so I won't mind creating a room myself.

If I had a chance to design ^{of my dream} a room ~~for myself~~, I would ~~not~~ make ~~it~~ ^{neither} too big, nor too small. I would like the room to be ~~rectangular~~ ^{square} ~~with small corners~~, so I could place there a table ^{desk} and a closet ^{in the corners}. I would make the windows big to see everything outside and use the sunlight so as not to waste ~~other~~ electricity. I would like to have white walls and ceiling, because this colour makes my eyes relax. Moreover, pictures of any colour ~~x~~ match with a white background.

To ~~cover~~ ^{чистовик} the wall I would use ~~usual~~ ^{ordinary} wallpaper to cover the walls and wood to cover the floor. I like how fresh wood smells.

Actually, I wouldn't put neither a grand piano, nor a basketball hoop, nor a football soccer table in my room, because I'm interested in neither music, nor basketball, nor ~~football~~ other sport games. But I would surely put a big desk ^{near the window} which I could place a computer, my books and school supplies on ~~in my room~~. I would like to have a sofa instead of a canopy bed because ~~it~~ ^{a sofa} takes less place. Of course, I would like to have a wardrobe ^{household items} to keep my clothes, books, and other things in it. And I wouldn't need a bunk bed & if I lived in the room alone. I would decorate the walls with interesting pictures and souvenirs &. They would help to remember all my trips and adventures, improve mood and make the room bright. I would put a nice round carpet in the middle of the room to lay on the floor and stay warm. It goes without saying that there would be an enormous amount of plants in my room. I am really ~~fond of~~ ^{keen on} taking care of them and admiring bright green and or red leaves and breathtaking amazing Flowers as the result of my proper work. That would be a ~~wonder~~ Fascinating room to live in!

To sum it all up, I can say that the key point of creating a ^{comfortable} ~~nice~~ and cosy place to live is using the colours ^{and materials} you like and the ^{with} things you ~~need~~ ~~can~~ to complete that match ^{with} your lifestyle, daily routine and leisure time activities. ~~As for me~~ So the room ^{you live in} should be a place where everything allows to relax and have a good time whatever you are busy with. As for me, ~~such~~ the room described in the paragraphs above is ~~a perfect place~~ but everyone ~~if~~ I had an opportunity to have such a room, I wouldn't miss the chance, that is for sure!

That is because your own room is your own little world where you have your own rules and find support ~~to~~ ^{for} communicating with the ~~furious~~ severe world outside successfully.
