Задок 1. Listening

A 1) ~~evolution~~ EVOLUTION +

2) THOUSANDS +

3) ENLIGHTENMENT —

4) NOVEL +

5) EXQUISITELY + 4

B Both texts state that the topic of evolution still causes ^{a blaze of} ~~arguments~~ and misunderstandings. However, the speaker mentioned that people in the past used to treat certain ~~organs~~ or creatures as something divine, while the article reveals that life used to be very simple, but has flourished throughout the years. We can say for sure that there will always exist a variety of opinions, and that is applicable to any science.

Задок 2. Reading

A. David Crystal mentions that grammar helps certain words convey a particular meaning. Without decent knowledge of grammar we wouldn't be able to comprehend what the character ^{from extract 1:3} was trying to imply. Since such words as "lafting" or "thot" do not fit the context. Our brain is capable of replacing them with the correct options to make us understand the extract. Those contracted forms that we encounter in extract 2 are also grammar units. Our brain identifies them as short forms, gives them the appropriate grammatical context, and we understand the text.

B. Character from extract number 3 seems to be suffering from a mental disorder and thus not being able to express his thoughts accurately, according to the grammar rules. The extract resembles an ^{entrance from the diary} ~~diary's entrance~~, so we can understand that the character is not psychologically healthy by reading ^{the entrance} ~~his entrance~~ and paying attention to the mistakes he makes. As for extract number 2, I would say that the exchange illustrates that the characters come from a ^{village} ~~poorly~~ educated family, probably from ^a ~~the~~ remote ~~country~~ ^{side}, where everyone is used to ~~the~~ contractions, grammar mistakes and speaking in an inaccurate way. ^{Both writers managed to succeed in creating the images of people P.S. who are}

Task 2. Reading

C. (2) He's not going to call to meddle with me, he's not.

- Let him say what he likes. I don't want to have any truck with him.

- Yes: tell HIM where he comes from if you want to go fortune-telling

(3) It was just like he was doing the same thing Burt wanted me to do with the lines on the paper. I was laughing because I thought it was going to be a hard thing for a mouse to do. But then Algernon kept going all the way through all the right ways till he came out where it said finish and made a squeek. Burt says that means he was happy because he did the thing right.

B. P.S. Both writers ~~were~~ succeeded in creating the images of the characters who are somehow (either in terms of well-being or in terms of their cultural background) different from an average person.

P.S. 2. Probably, characters from extract number 2 might be involved in criminal activities since they speak in a furious, irritated way and mention another person in a very disrespectful way.

Задок 4. Cultural Competences

The speech couldn't have been given by Elizabeth I because the speaker mentioned the word war, which meanse the speech couldn't have been given before the 20th century. The speaker alludes to Horatio Nelson. The speech is laid out in a very confident ^{Admiral} way and demonstrates a huge love for the Empire. Taking everything into consideration, I reckon that this speech was given by Winston Churchill during World War II.

Друк 5. ~~Writing~~ Writing

Dear teachers, fellow students and everyone who is here with us today to share this unique moment, I'm so grateful to be standing here in front of you. I've been dreaming about giving my valedictorian speech for the entire decade of studying, and the day has come. Today I will be sharing my precious findings to motivate you and inject a zest of happiness in our amazing audience. I realise that you all face some obstacles that may seem insuperable, so today's ^{main} topics ~~are~~ ^{is how to overcome difficulties} stress management ^{valuable pieces of} advice that will help you attain your goals. ~~and some~~ ^{and} ~~intriguing~~

Alas, we do not always cherish the precious moments of childhood and adolescence that we spend in school. Our alma mater has taught us to choose true friends, establish our first relationships. One may face a blaze of challenges while mastering the skills of seeking friends and being a genuine one ^{yourself}. ^{but it's all worth it.} My school years have gifted me my best friend who is both my shoulder to cry on and the one whose jokes I adore the most.

Undoubtedly, apart from being a place where we've learned how to write and count, ~~be~~ our school has taught us to be ~~diligent and ardent~~ ^{strong and never} students. Unfortunately, my biggest regret ^{is that I give up} is that I couldn't score enough points to enroll in my dream university. However, I'm ~~for~~ lucky enough to be accompanied by my mentors and loved ones who are always ready to be there for me. ~~I~~ I've learned a lesson that ~~sometimes~~ ^{though} mishaps may hurt you, ~~but~~ you should never forget that true love cannot be ~~bought~~ purchased for the finest gold, and ^{only} ~~this~~ love makes you the most affluent person in the world.

~~If it hadn't been for my friend, I wouldn't be standing here now and giving my speech.~~ I advise you to never lose sight of your goals and rely on your loved ones if you need their help indeed. Do not ever surrender, so did I. ~~I've just~~ My application was accepted two days ago, and this year I'm going to become a student of another amazing college. The most hilarious thing about it is that I learned about this university by pure luck. A manager dialed the wrong number and contacted me instead of another candidate, but I became ^{so} very enthusiastic about that particular college that I sent my application immediately.

I would like to thank all our amazing teachers for supporting us and always being ready to give a helping hand. Of course, our academic journey wouldn't be the same if it hadn't been for our friends and family members. I'm so grateful to have such ~~ana~~ people by my side. Please, do not hesitate to congratulate your teachers and loved ones!

To conclude, I would like to stay that you will eventually achieve any goals you set if you do not give up. As you see, it's never the right time to surrender. I hope that my example could motivate you. Please, never forget our school and don't hold a grudge against your teachers and fellow students. I would like to share one quote, which is "We only miss the light when it's burning low". Thank you for your attention! ~~Congratulations~~ Congratulations on your victorious achievements!
