I think that fast food is not good for me because it contains a lot of sugar and carbons which are bad for my health.

My favourite dish is truffle pasta with cheese. To cook it you just need to make some pasta, add some cheese. I prefer parmesan and add some truffles and truffle oil.

For me home means family, comfort, a place where I can always stay and not worry about anything. My room means my personal space, in what no one can enter, where I can do whatever I want, whenever I want. I don't dream of an ideal room because I already have one but there are some things that I want to add or to change.

To begin, it has to be big because I want a large canopy bed. And I need a lot of free space because I love dancing.

and sometimes I want to dance in my own room. I want my room to be light pink and blue. These colours are calming but not boring, and they add cozy and nice atmosphere to my room. My wallpapers need to be really light pink and they need to be without any drawings or pictures - I don't want my room to look childish. I don't really care about my floor, it can be the same as in the other rooms.

I want a big bookshelf in my room because I really love reading - it is actually my hobby. And I need a table to do my homework and a chair with it. I don't want any musical instruments or anything that is connected to sport in my room because I'm not interested in those. I want to replace simple small windows on the big ones because I want more light in my room. But I don't want to move anything.

To conclude, I think that the most important things to make your room more comfortable and cozy are lamps, your bed, and your walls. The colour of the room really matters and is really important for me. This is very difficult to make your room cozy and comfortable for yourself but once you do that, ~~your~~ your room becomes the best place in the world.

For me home means family, comfort, a place where I can always stay and not worry about anything. My own room means my personal space, ~~that's no one can enter~~ ^{in what} can enter, where I can do whatever I want, whenever I want. I don't dream of an ideal room because I already have one but I want to change a couple of things.

~~Firstly~~ To begin, it needs to be big because I want a ^{big} canopy bed. And I need a lot of free space because I love dancing and sometimes I ^{want to} dance in my room. I want my room to be ~~pink~~ light pink and blue. Those colours are calming but not boring and they add cozy and nice atmosphere into my room. I want a big bookshelf in my room because I really love reading - it is actually my hobby. And I need a table to do my homework, and of course a chair. I don't want any musical instruments in my room and anything that is connected to sport because I'm not interested in that. I want to replace simple small windows on the big ones because I want to ~~see~~ what's going on more light in my room. But they shant be in the same place - at the same wall I mean.

To conclude, I think that the most important ^{things} to make the room more comfortable are light, bed and the walls. For me, light is one of the most important things because when they are too cold-toned, practically white, I feel like I'm in the hospital. ~~The bed and the walls make the whole atmosphere boring, cozy, warm or even sad, so that is very important for me.~~ This is difficult - to make the your room cozy and comfortable for yourself but once you do that, your room becomes the best place in the world. ~~and I love this.~~
