загадка 2

My favourite dish that I would like to share with my friends is lasagna. To make it, you have to boil special sheets and meat. Add sauce between the two.

Тема 5

There is no place like home. When I step into my flat I feel safe, warm, cozy and relieved. Walking into my room, the bed just calls to lie on it. Although the room is not perfect, it is still the best place to be in during any situation. I don't really want to change anything in it. But if I did, here is what I'd ~~change~~ do.

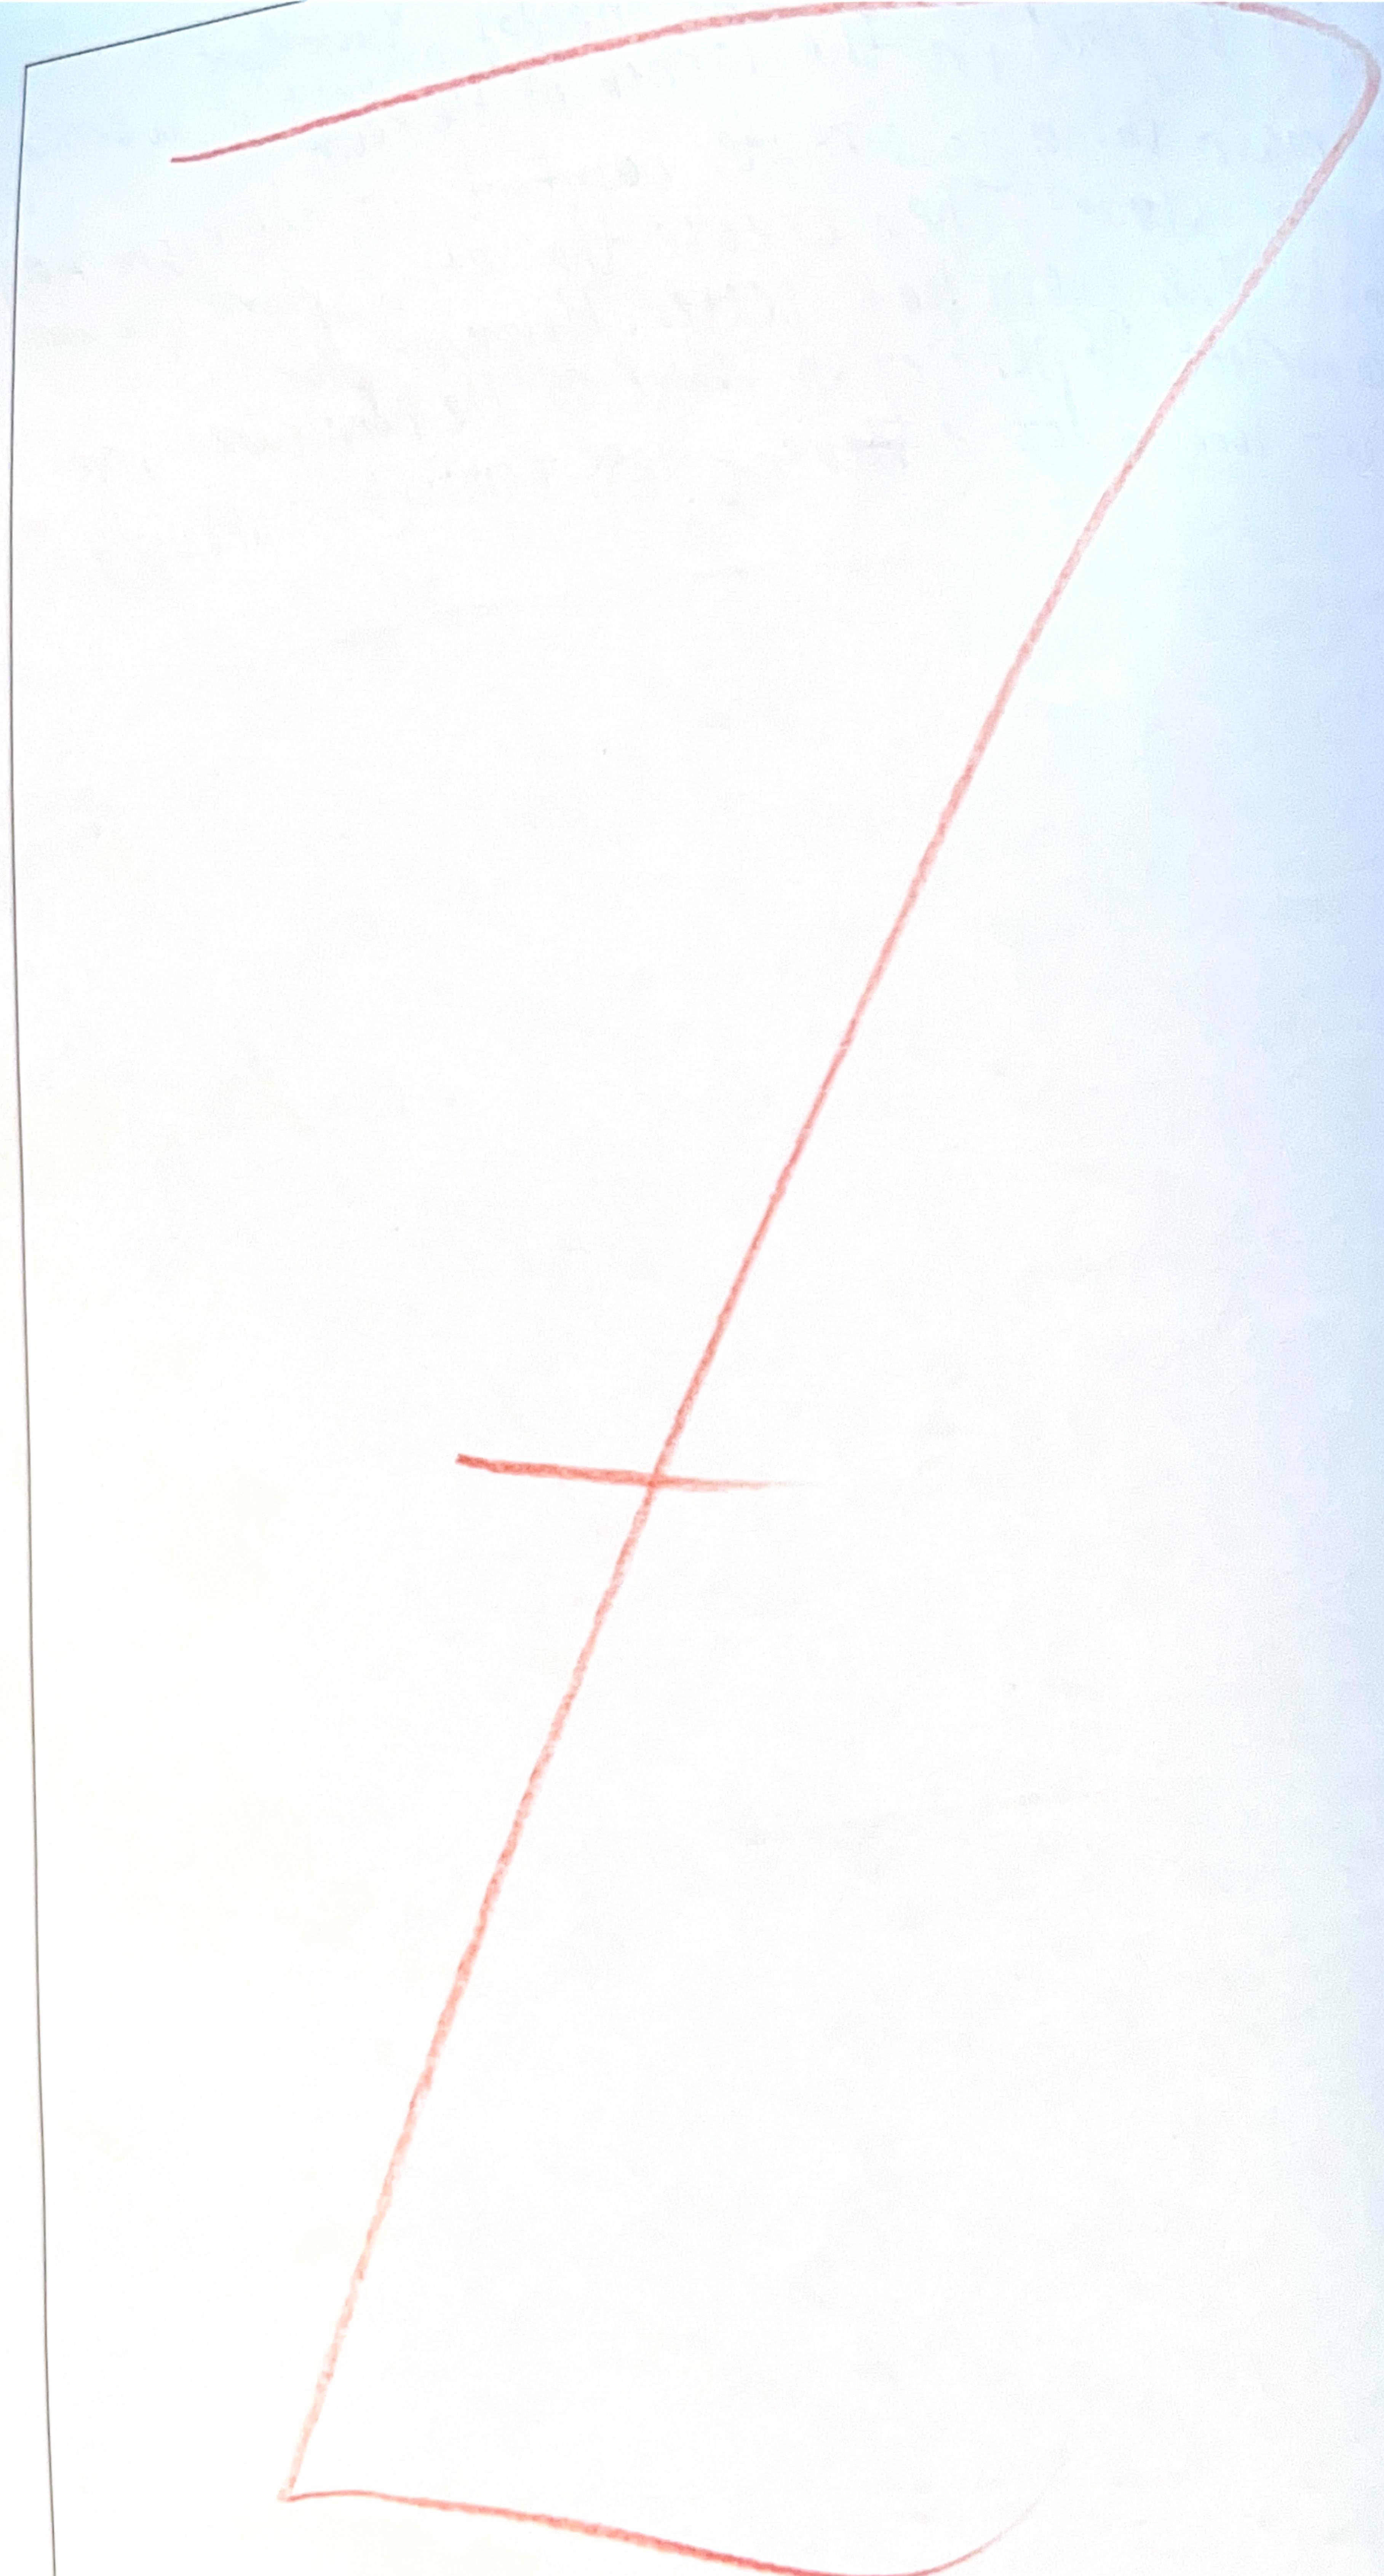

Firstly, the room should be larger. The square shape should be able to fit more stuff. Then, the colours. I think that grey and white would make a great contrast. It isn't painful to look at them. Besides, studies showed, they make the room feel bigger, and ~~make~~ you feel calm. The walls should be grey, without wall papers. The floor, though, can either be just white, or with a pattern of scattered, thin, black lines.

Speaking about the furniture, I'd like to place a grand piano, a book case, a table with a computer and a small bed. To me, there is no use in buying a canopy bed if you sleep alone. However, a piano is well-worth it. It trains your brain and memory. The computer and bookshelf are just enough for studying. There is also no need in a soccer table or a basketball hoop. They are just a distraction from studying or relaxing. However, monkey bars could be useful. They don't take up much space and provide the needed <sup>Чистовик</sup> amount of workout. They could be placed in the corner of the room.

The main thing to create comfort in the room are the main colours. They create the atmosphere you want and make the room look better. However, planning is also important. Depending on where all the furniture is, the room can look a lot different, less comfortable and cozy.
