Блок 2. Reading.

You are going to read two synopses, A and B, of a play by William Shakespeare.

For questions 1-10 complete the tasks.

A
Shakespeare sets the scene in Verona, Italy. Juliet and Romeo meet and fall instantly in love at a masked ball of the Capulets, and they profess their love when Romeo, unwilling to leave, climbs the wall into the orchard garden of her family's house and finds her alone at her window. Because their well-to-do families are enemies, the two are married secretly by Friar Laurence. When Tybalt, a Capulet, seeks out Romeo in revenge for the insult of Romeo's having dared to shower his attentions on Juliet, an ensuing scuffle ends in the death of Romeo's dearest friend, Mercutio and his famous words 'A plague o' both houses!' Impelled by a code of honour among men, Romeo kills Tybalt and is banished to Mantua by the Prince of Verona, who has been insistent that the family feuding cease. When Juliet's father, unaware that Juliet is already secretly married, arranges a marriage with the eminently eligible Count Paris, the young bride seeks out Friar Laurence for assistance in her desperate situation. He gives her a potion that will make her appear to be dead and proposes that she take it and that Romeo rescue her. She complies. Romeo, however, unaware of the friar's scheme because a letter has failed to reach him, returns to Verona on hearing of Juliet's apparent death. He encounters a grieving Paris at Juliet's tomb, reluctantly kills him when Paris attempts to prevent Romeo from entering the tomb, and finds Juliet in the burial vault. There he gives her a last kiss and kills himself with poison. Juliet awakens, sees the dead Romeo, and kills herself. The families learn what has happened and end their feud to the echo of Prince's words, 'For never was a story of more woe Than this of Juliet and her Romeo.'

B

The prologue of Romeo and Juliet calls the title characters "star-crossed lovers"—and the stars do seem to conspire against these young lovers. Romeo is a Montague, and Juliet a Capulet. Their families are enmeshed in a feud. Yet Romeo and his friends attend a party at Juliet's house in disguise. The moment the two meet they fall in love. They urgently decide that they want to be married. A friar secretly marries them, hoping to end the feud. Romeo and his companions almost immediately encounter Juliet's cousin Tybalt, who challenges Romeo. However, Romeo refuses to fight. Romeo's friend Mercutio accepts the challenge and is killed. Romeo then kills Tybalt and is banished. He spends that night with Juliet and then leaves for Mantua. Juliet's father forces her into a marriage with Count Paris. To avoid this marriage, Juliet takes a potion, given her by the friar, that makes her appear dead. The friar will send Romeo word to be at her family tomb when she awakes. The plan goes awry, and Romeo learns instead that she is dead. In the tomb, Romeo kills himself. Juliet wakes, sees his body, and commits suicide. Their deaths appear finally to end the feud.

For questions 1 and 2, decide whether the statements are true or false. Fill in the blanks with True or False.

1. Romeo and Juliet meet for the first time in the orchard garden.

2. After both lovers die, the long-standing conflict between their families probably comes to an end.

1	False
2	True

For question 3, fill in the blank with the letter representing a character from a different play by Shakespeare, NOT Romeo and Juliet.

Character A Becomes emotionally attached after a first encounter. Pursues the relationship despite serious external obstacles. Avoids violence at first but later becomes involved in it. Is forced to leave their home as punishment for their actions. Dies believing the person they love is already dead.

Character B Falls in love quickly and secretly. Uses deception rather than secrecy to pursue the relationship. Pretends to be someone else for most of the story. Is eventually reunited happily with the loved one without having to die.

3	B

For question 4, fill in the blank with the character who committed this action.

By facilitating a covert union, they seek to confer legitimacy on a doomed relationship.

4	Friar Laurence
---	----------------

For question 5, match the synopses, A or B, with their descriptions.

1. This synopsis demonstrates fragmented narration, implicit linear chronology, sequential cause-effect structure, requires active reconstruction, and is light per sentence but cumulatively highly condensed.

2. This synopsis demonstrates continuous narrative, explicit and carefully staged chronology, incorporates cause-effect signals, guides interpretation and sequence, and is heavily cognitively loaded.

5	1	A
	2	B

For question 6, reflect on the ultimate cause of Romeo and Juliet's tragedy. You can agree or disagree, partially or completely, with the following statement. Refer to the synopses to support your point of view. Write your answer in the style of Synopsis A. Write your answer in 50-60 words.

Juliet is to blame.

I do not support the point of view which claims that Juliet is to blame for the tragedy. She, as Synopsis A states, was desperate and sought any means that could help her reunite with Romeo, her lover. Juliet, being so in love, decided to follow a dangerous risky plan dangerous plan. It would have worked if Romeo had received his wife's letter. Thus, misfortune is to blame, not the poor heroine. 5

Was this speech made by Elizabeth II (1926–2022, queen of Great Britain and Northern Ireland)?

My loving people,

We have been persuaded by some that are careful of our safety to take heed how we commit ourselves to armed multitudes, for fear of treachery. But I assure you, I do not desire to live to distrust my faithful and loving people.

Let tyrants fear. I have always so behaved myself that, under God, I have placed my chiefest strength and safeguard in the loyal hearts and good-will of my subjects; and therefore I am come amongst you, as you see, at this time, not for my recreation and disport, but being resolved, in the midst and heat of the battle, to live and die amongst you all; to lay down for my God, and for my kingdom, and my people, my honour and my blood, even in the dust.

I know I have the body of a weak and feeble woman; but I have the heart and stomach of a king, [...] and think foul scorn that [anyone] should dare to invade the borders of my realm: to which rather than any dishonour shall grow by me, I myself will take up arms, I myself will be your general, judge, and rewarder of every one of your virtues in the field.

Recommendation on a book to read / film to watch and a short explanation of how it helps deal with procrastination.

Recommendation of practical actions a teenager can realistically take (at least 2) to alleviate or eradicate the problem of procrastination.

Summarise what has been said and make a final comment.

Although this is a poster, write it as a structured text with relevant subheadings and short paragraphs.

Write your poster in an informal style.

Write your poster in at least 250 words.

I suppose the speech was delivered by Queen Victoria. I will prove that the speech does not belong to Elizabeth II. Firstly, the speech was delivered "in the midst and heart of the battle", however no battle took place during the reign of Elizabeth II. Secondly, such language peculiarity as "I am come..." was not typical for the late XIX and XXI centuries. Besides, the realms of Elizabeth II did not experience any threats during her reign. Finally, the Queen did not visit any occasions where she would pronounce such speech.

LET'S FIGHT AGAINST PROCRASTINATION:

SOLUTION FOR EVERYONE

WHAT IS PROCRASTINATION?

We often come across such scary word as 'procrastination', but what does it mean in a nutshell? Well, it's a ~~condition~~ state when you postpone doing important things and do something not significant at all instead. A lot of us have experienced procrastination when we came back from school and started scrolling TikTok, for instance, instead of doing ^{our} assignments.

WHAT CAUSES PROCRASTINATION?

Unfortunately, there're many factors that influence lead us to experiencing procrastination. For example, it can be the fear of difficulty that ~~comes~~ ^{is associated} with accomplishing ~~the~~ ^{ment} of important tasks. Also, it can be our desire to get easy dopamine. It's a hormone that makes us feel pleasure. By scrolling, we get it very easily, right? So, ^{that's why} we don't want to do anything else afterwards. And, interestingly enough, ^a simple lack of energy can be the cause of procrastination.

WHY PROCRASTINATION IS BAD?

Believe me, ~~there's~~ procrastination is no joke! It may sound like something ordinary, but it actually has negative consequences. For instance, if you postpone doing your assignments, their quantity only grows! The more you procrastinate, the more crestfallen ~~with~~ you'll feel when you discover loads of tasks to do. Besides, while you think that you relax ~~by~~ ^{by} scrolling TikTok, you actually don't. That's because your brain still needs energy to do ~~even~~ even tiny tasks. And that is the reason why you do 'nothing' but still feel exhausted and don't get good recreation.

of procrastination. It explains the importance of being independent from devices ~~and~~ in simple words. In addition, many of ~~its~~ its chapters explore the topic of procrastination and give you valuable pieces of advice on how to fight against it.

CONTINUE WITH SMALL STEPS

You can easily alleviate the problem of procrastination by introducing one law: Before procrastinating, spend two minutes doing something important. Gradually increase the quantity of time and you'll feel able to concentrate ^{more and more} on accomplishing significant tasks! Also, try making plans for the ^{following} day or writing ^{ing} lists of things to do. Believe me or not, they do help to boost your motivation and prevent you from procrastinating. In addition, invite friends to fight against procrastination ~~with you!~~ ~~You'll see that~~ It's fun!

YOU WILL COPE WITH IT!

Although procrastination is a dangerous ~~phenom~~ notion, you are able to get rid of it if you make effort! Don't forget that it's OK to feel tired while fighting. Remember the perks of being independent from procrastination and follow ~~the~~ ^{the} realistical recommendations! ~~Together,~~
