Блок 2. Reading.

You are going to read two synopses, A and B, of a play by William Shakespeare.

For questions 1-10 complete the tasks.

A

Shakespeare sets the scene in Verona, Italy. Juliet and Romeo meet and fall instantly in love at a masked ball of the Capulets, and they profess their love when Romeo, unwilling to leave, climbs the wall into the orchard garden of her family's house and finds her alone at her window. Because their well-to-do families are enemies, the two are married secretly by Friar Laurence. When Tybalt, a Capulet, seeks out Romeo in revenge for the insult of Romeo's having dared to shower his attentions on Juliet, an ensuing scuffle ends in the death of Romeo's dearest friend, Mercutio and his famous words 'A plague o' both houses!' Impelled by a code of honour among men, Romeo kills Tybalt and is banished to Mantua by the Prince of Verona, who has been insistent that the family feuding cease. When Juliet's father, unaware that Juliet is already secretly married, arranges a marriage with the eminently eligible Count Paris, the young bride seeks out Friar Laurence for assistance in her desperate situation. He gives her a potion that will make her appear to be dead and proposes that she take it and that Romeo rescue her. She complies. Romeo, however, unaware of the friar's scheme because a letter has failed to reach him, returns to Verona on hearing of Juliet's apparent death. He encounters a grieving Paris at Juliet's tomb, reluctantly kills him when Paris attempts to prevent Romeo from entering the tomb, and finds Juliet in the burial vault. There he gives her a last kiss and kills himself with poison. Juliet awakens, sees the dead Romeo, and kills herself. The families learn what has happened and end their feud to the echo of Prince's words, 'For never was a story of more woe Than this of Juliet and her Romeo.'

B

The prologue of Romeo and Juliet calls the title characters "star-crossed lovers"—and the stars do seem to conspire against these young lovers. Romeo is a Montague, and Juliet a Capulet. Their families are enmeshed in a feud. Yet Romeo and his friends attend a party at Juliet's house in disguise. The moment the two meet they fall in love. They urgently decide that they want to be married. A friar secretly marries them, hoping to end the feud. Romeo and his companions almost immediately encounter Juliet's cousin Tybalt, who challenges Romeo. However, Romeo refuses to fight. Romeo's friend Mercutio accepts the challenge and is killed. Romeo then kills Tybalt and is banished. He spends that night with Juliet and then leaves for Mantua. Juliet's father forces her into a marriage with Count Paris. To avoid this marriage, Juliet takes a potion, given her by the friar, that makes her appear dead. The friar will send Romeo word to be at her family tomb when she awakes. The plan goes awry, and Romeo learns instead that she is dead. In the tomb, Romeo kills himself. Juliet wakes, sees his body, and commits suicide. Their deaths appear finally to end the feud.

For questions 1 and 2, decide whether the statements are true or false. Fill in the blanks with True or False.

1. The friar provides Juliet with a substance that makes her seem lifeless.
2. Romeo remains in Verona after his exile.

+	1	True
+	2	False

For question 3, fill in the blank with the letter representing a character from a different play by Shakespeare, NOT Romeo and Juliet.

Character A Shows loyalty by stepping into a conflict not originally their own. Acts when another person refuses to fight. Becomes directly involved in violence. Loses their life during the confrontation. Their death triggers further consequences.

Character B Is closely connected to the central couple. Avoids involvement in violent disputes. Survives a public confrontation. Leaves the city voluntarily. Is present at the end of the story.

3 B

For question 4, fill in the blank with the character who committed this action.

This character's ignorance of a prior commitment undermines the arrangements he later initiates.

4 Juliet's Father

For question 5, match the synopses, A or B, with their descriptions.

1. This synopsis demonstrates fragmented narration, implicit linear chronology, sequential cause-effect structure, requires active reconstruction, and is light per sentence but cumulatively highly condensed.
2. This synopsis demonstrates continuous narrative, explicit and carefully staged chronology, incorporates cause-effect signals, guides interpretation and sequence, and is heavily cognitively loaded.

5 1 B
2 A

(10.7)

For question 6, reflect on the ultimate cause of Romeo and Juliet's tragedy. You can agree or disagree, partially or completely, with the following statement. Refer to the synopses to support your point of view. Write your answer in the style of Synopsis A. Write your answer in 50-60 words.

The tradition of vendetta is to blame.

I completely agree with the statement. It was the old tradition of vendetta which at that point had no reason to persist, that kickstarted the complete derailment of heroes' lives. It all wasn't because of the letter that didn't find Romeo nor was it because no one told their elders anything as they would have been killed. It all started with this pretentious tradition.

You are going to read an extract from a speech of historic importance. Analyse the language and facts presented in it.

Prove that the person this text is hypothetically attributed to was NOT the one in whose name the speech was delivered in reality.

Guess and write who WAS the person in whose name the speech was delivered in reality. Make sure you spell the name correctly.

Write 70-80 words using 3-4 facts or language peculiarities from the text showing that it is not possible that this speech was delivered by the said person.

Was this speech spoken by Elizabeth I (Queen of England and Ireland from 17 November 1558 until her death in 1603)?

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is with great satisfaction that I meet you again in Parliament, and have recourse to your assistance and advice. My Relations with Foreign Powers continue to be friendly and satisfactory; and I trust that the moderation of the powers of Europe will prevent any interruption of the general peace. [...] I announce to you also at the close of the last session of Parliament that the pacific overtures which my envoy in China had made to the Imperial Government at Peking having led to no satisfactory Result, my naval and military forces, and those of my ally The Emperor of the French, were to advance towards the Northern Provinces of China, for the purpose of supporting the just demands of the Allied Powers, and that the Earl of Elgin had been sent to China as Special Ambassador to treat with the Chinese Government.

I am glad to inform you that the operations of the Allied Forces have been attended with complete success. After the capture of the forts at the mouth of the Peiho, and several engagements with the Chinese Army, the Allied Forces became Masters of the Imperial City of Peking; and the Earl of Elgin and Baron Gros, the Ambassador of the Emperor of the French, were enabled to obtain an honourable and satisfactory settlement of all the matters in dispute. Throughout these operations, and the negotiations which followed them, the commanders and ambassadors of the Allied Powers acted with the most friendly concert. Papers on this subject will be laid before you. [...]

Serious differences have arisen among the States of the North American Union. It is impossible for me not to look with great concern upon any events which can affect the happiness and welfare of a people nearly allied to my subjects by descent, and closely connected with them by the most intimate and friendly relations. My heartfelt wish is, that these differences may be susceptible of a satisfactory adjustment.

The interest which I take in the well-being of the people of the United States cannot but be increased by the kind and cordial reception given by them to the Prince of Wales during his recent visit to the Continent of America.

I am glad to take this opportunity of expressing My warm appreciation of the loyalty and attachment to My Person and Throne manifested by my Canadian and other North American subjects on the occasion of the residence of the Prince of Wales among them. [...]

This speech was not delivered by Elizabeth I as during the Elizabethan era there were ~~to~~ not yet ~~the~~ the United States, she did not send a special ambassador to China and did not send the military there. As there were no settlements in North America during that time it wouldn't be possible to have any disputes in the North American Union. The armed forces during that time did not capture any Chinese forts. I think it might be queen Victoria.

How to forget what boredom even is?

Boredom is that feeling when it seems like there is nothing better or more entertaining to do than to lay flat on your back and spit at the ceiling. This might happen because you may have not enough options even if it feels like you've tried everything and nothing clicked. Or on the contrary you may have too many options and picking something takes a long time and is also extremely boring.

~~what can happen~~
 Boredom can lead to disappointment in yourself or feeling burned out as if you had no time to rest. I can help

If you need something "un-bore-ing" right now and you need it fast then you're in for a treat. You should watch "Monty Python and the Holy Grail". In my opinion it is at least a top-five comedy film of all time and it's not even a competition. It is action-packed and full of British humour. ~~It is~~ This film most definitely lit up that boring evening.

What YOU can do

In my experience one of the best things you can do is to compile an ordered list of all the things you want to do or to try. At the top there should be the things that excite you the most and gradually down where things are mildly interesting. Now when you feel bored whenever you feel bored you can go through the list top to bottom and act on the first thing you can or are and are willing to do right now. If it turns out that you don't want to do anything then it's either tiredness or laziness.

One more thing you can do is starting something new. It can take a lot of time but continuing is a lot easier than starting. And either way if you have nothing to do you just might apply yourself to something practical. It even can become your new favourite activity.

Conclusion

Boredom can feel overwhelming and all-encompassing but there are both quick fixes and practical solutions. For the first one you even don't even need to do much and for the latter you have to put your mind to it just once and all is solved. I am happy that I can share my experience with you all.
